HEADQUARTERS CIVILIAN INTERNMENT CAMP NO. 8
GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, GERMANY

31 August 1946

C E R T I F I C A T E

Dr. NERVEN STAMKE, born 4 May 1910, internee in this enclosure from 24 July till to-day, has been in charge of all outgoing work details who performed work for this camp, like the wood cutters etc. or who worked for American soldiers. He had to dispatch about 1000 workers each day, and he was responsible to assign the right men to the different details.

His work has been done in a highly capable and satisfactory manner. His cooperation and reliability have been very much appreciated.

He is to be recommended for any kind of work of a like nature.
